

Practical Nursing Program Outcomes

Outcome	Definition	Actual Outcome	3- year Mean	National Mean
Program Completion: At least 60% of students enrolled in the PN program will complete the program. The program's three-year mean will be at or above 60%.	The percentage of students who complete the nursing program within 150% of the stated program length.	2023: 79.6% 2022: 76.9% 2021: 72.9%	2023: 76.2% 2022: 75.4% 2021: 76.8%
Performance on Licensure Exam: The program's 3-year mean for the licensure exam pass rate for all test takers will be at or above the national mean.	The percentage of graduates who pass the NCLEX-PN®.	2023:97.2% 2022: 93% 2021:93%	2023:92.3% 2022:89% 2021:92.86%	2023:86.68% 2022:79.93% 2021:82.16%
Job Placement: At least 90% of graduates from the PN program will be employed as a practical nurse 6 to 12 months after graduation. The program's three-year mean for job placement will be at or above 90%.	The percentage of graduates passing the NCLEX-PN® employed in nursing practice as a licensed practical nurse by 6 to 12 months after graduation.	2023: 100% 2022: 100% 2021: 96%	2023: 98.7% 2022: 98.7% 2021: 98%
At least 90% of graduates responding to the graduate survey will rate the graduate's overall preparation to practice nursing as satisfactory. The program's three-year mean for program satisfaction will be at or above 90% for graduates.	The perception of the graduates as to the adequacy and effectiveness of the program 6 to 12 months post-graduation.	2023:	2023:	